

Luxury Tableware – Bon Appétit

Photo Courtesy of Robert Haviland & C. Parlo

This time, we have rounded up some luxury tableware brands that are a superb starting point to add to your tableware collection. Check out our edit of stylish products from Maison & Objet Paris fair this year.

Robert Haviland & C. Parlon has been providing embassies, museums and most prestigious hotels in the world with the finest tableware. The Syracuse collection, in exquisite turquoise and gold hues, evokes shades of the Mediterranean Sea, while drawing upon Greek-Roman civilization for design inspo.

Former interior designer Elad Yifrach presents an eclectic collection by his lifestyle brand L'Objet. His passion for travel, history and culture is evidenced in his designs for the Chinese Han and Alchimie de Venise collections.

A must-have set is from the Roberto Cavalli Home Luxury Collections. Inspired by the RTW of Roberto Cavalli, the Garden's Birds tableware sees birds dancing across the plates, while gold exalts the prints on the Camouflage Collection in a glam way.

Portuguese brand Costa Nova's Lisboa Collection is inspired by the blue and white tiles of the 18th and 19th centuries, while the Madeira Collection in vivid colors and 'crackled' surface is inspired by nature. The pastel shades of Shine Collection by Baci Milano would be fun additions to the breakfast table, while inspired by the Mediterranean heritage, the brand Images D'Orient explores Andalusia, its architecture and gardens for its new collection by the same name. SV Casa's rustic ceramic Panarea plates with gold trim would undoubtedly add elegance to your table.

Next time, we will bring you some more pretty tableware designs from around the world. For now, check out the Photo Gallery below!

Smitha Sadanandan

Lifestyle & Culture Home Decor

Luxury Tableware – Bon Appétit

Lisboa Collection, Costa Nova

f Share it t Tweet it p Pin it

Lifestyle & Culture Home Decor

Luxury Tableware – Bon Appétit

Madeira Collection, Costa Nova

f Share it t Tweet it p Pin it

